Software city

It's not a secret that technologies are developing rapidly. My hometown, Tyumen, is known as "technocity", because it is the most progressive and prosperous city in Russia. Here are some reasons why you should visit this cosmopolitan town.

Charming landmarks

Without any exception, a place that every tourist must witness firsthand, is The Museum of Modern Technologies. There are a lot of up-to-date vehicles and machines, which can satisfy curiosity. Besides, there are many upmarket shops, where you can buy anything you want: trendy clothes or even a personal robot!

Unusual qualifications

As robots have been taught, how to do simple tasks, humans do only integrated work or control robots' actions. Moreover, people usually don't go to offices - they work at home because it is more convenient and they don't have to spend a lot of time in traffic jams.

Healthy hobbies

Everyone has their own hobby but almost every person in Tyumen is keen on sports. There are a lot of gyms, where one can strengthen one's bones, joints, unwind mentally. Besides, football is the most popular kind of sport. Every child wants to become a sportsman in the future.

In conclusion, Tyumen is an astonishing city that every person in the world must see. Even if you aren't keen on technologies, this town has a magical atmosphere that will be loved and cherished by everyone.
