Now, when everyone uses teleportation and descends, just don't have a chance to appear thanks to our obsolete all-disease-vaccine, it is almost impossible to imagine our lives without all this. However for those, who wants to experience an atmosphere of ^{the} past, but can't afford time-machine software, I will tell you about Tyumen-city, that is only half modernised.

History of separation and life there nowadays

18r 19p

Long time ago, about 50 years ago, when ~~the~~ countries began to change vehicles with ~~animals~~ & ecologically-protective flying ~~animals~~ animals, half of Tyumen citizens decided to exchange their cars to animals. People of Tyumen were of great respect in ~~the~~ Kremlin, so ~~the~~ the president decided to separate Tyumen into two areas -- in one area no changes ^{has} happened since 2020-people still cook food themselves, they ~~don't~~ have no contact with the rest of the world and even ~~is~~ not with another part of Tyumen; ~~the~~ children there go to schools and work on manual resources, as they grow, in their free time they struggle with each other and try to get as many ^{cash} natural resources as possible.

while in ~~the~~ the other half of Tyumen people are friendly and so healthy, that they jump to their floor from earth if they are too tired to use ^{the} elevator. ~~that~~ All children that are born in ^{the} modernised half of ~~the~~ Tyumen are blue-eyed, blonde-haired, 2 metres tall and one metre wide, with an integrated computer in their hands.

Conclusion

Don't miss your chance to look at the last half of a city on the earth that stayed just as it was 50 years ago, and compare it with ^{the} nowadays part of a city.
