Tyumen: the black gem of Siberia.
The colourful arrival.

As the supersonic train carries you through the taiga forests you can spend some spare time to read this entry to be aware of what waits for you in the point of destination. So, just after the train stops you will be warmly welcomed by offered a taxi, controlled by d-I, but I strongly suggest you to choose more exotic vehicle - a living mammoth, which gives you a view from the back of prehistoric creature.

Sightseeing.

As the long history of this city is highly integrated in the lifestyle, the main tourist attraction remains the huge Museum of Siberia, where you can find everything: from ancient fossils to soviet oil and gas equipment. While having a walk in the centre of Tyumen, you cannot miss „Emak” - the 150-storey skyscraper and the business centre of Western Siberia. There is a mall, located in the first 15 floors, where you can buy everything: from antique vases to up-to-date programming software. More than 20 thousand people work in this brain-child of Tyumen engineers.

The Great University.

Hotel cafe can carry you 2.0 kilometer down to the river Tura, where the Great University of Oil and Gas stands. It is the biggest oil and gas university in the whole Eurasia! Besides the main building you can enjoy your meal in „Tobal” restaurant - where national meals of all around Siberia are served.

Sense of adventure

There is only brief description of what you can see in this magnificent city. Come here and discover all its wonders by yourself!
