Introducing Russia.

A lot of people wonder: what is Russia? The answer to that question cannot be described in a sentence. It can only be described in an ~~entire~~ guidebook.

Russians have remained their dignity and ~~generosity~~ common sense. However, their lifestyles have definitely changed for the past fifty years. Take food for example: Russians have restrained from cater food and have turned to ~~snacks~~ snacks. Using the new energy bars, they are able to maintain all the essential nutrients while saving time.

Russians use peculiar means of transport. The popular vehicle „cosmotram“ is used to travel long distances in the atmosphere and space. A ~~cosmotram's~~ alternative helps to travel on the ground and water and „The Hell elevator“ gets people to the deeps of Earth's core.

A new way of integrated studying and ~~working~~ ^{sleeping} is popular nowadays. At night people are able to gather information while sleeping with an innovative software. They can later apply ~~their~~ their knowledge at work or study practises.

Last but not least, is spending free time. No sooner than the household software occurred people were free from the destrating house cleaning. Russians now enjoy their free time relaxing at the movie theatre or playing ~~video~~ ^{obsolete} video games.

With quite ^{quite} conventional citizen's lifestyle, Russia still remains its interest among tourists. The reason is that it ~~stayed~~ ^{combines} the aspects of European and Asian cultures in its unique way. So go ahead and visit Russia!
