Let Tyumen inspire you

‘The city of crafts’

Tyumen has always treated its cultural heritage proudly. One could see here wonderful houses decorated with charming wooden carvings centuries ago and people can still admire them. Another famous city's craft is drawing but not an ordinary one. These pictures are made with the help of a special software installed on people's gadgets and then they are placed on almost every surface that can be found. It can even be one's vehicle. The whole city has turned into the museum of pictures ~~that are~~ made as the result of integrated creativity and critical thinking. Thus, people adore taking a stroll around the city enjoying its marvellous sights, ~~and~~ and dining into various cafes serving national cuisine.

‘The goal of education’

Earlier people were prone to thinking that getting a well-paid job is the main priority and they received education in order to be specialists. That's why nowadays there many cafers, managers, accountants, etc. However, the main goal of student's contemporary education is to enlighten others, preserve the historical heritage of the city. Therefore, there are lots of teachers and tutors now guiding everyone through their roles.

‘Broadening horizons’

^{years ago} Our city attracted people ^{too} by with the chance to make money as Tyumen had oil resources. Fortunately, ^{with} the solution of serious problems and ~~and~~ the world stepping into a prosperous era, the perception of the world has changed, horizons have been widened and now Tyumen attracts ^{tourists} people as the city of spiritually reborn people. There has been built ~~the monument~~ an obsolete monument celebrating it. This change in people's minds will inspire you to make the world a better place to live.
