Style Dear Sir or Madam,

Or

 Style As you may know, our school's <sup>part</sup> historical museum is one of the best parts of ~~the~~ the school. The amount of acient objects and information that can be found useful for passing the history exam, all of that amazes me along with a number of students who volunteered to find out why it's not popular among the students.

Style In my opinion, the museum is not used as effectively as it should due to reasons such as: + a small amount of advertisement that is caused by the advertisement limitation on the school website and the outdated and muted colouring of the banner that leads to the museum.

 (+) The solutions to the problems and the <sup>SP</sup> recommendations for the school authorities are: investing in one or several new banners for the museum - that will attract more students and cancellation of the advertisement limitation on our school website - that will lead active internet users to share the information about the museum online. Other <sup>SP</sup> recommendations include updating the decorations of the museum and adding a photo-zone with fun historical <sup>lex</sup> objects - that will attract attention and motivate students to share photos of them visiting the museum as an output.

(+) In conclusion, we believe that if you follow our ~~recommen~~ recommendations, you will not just enhance the museum, but also notice <sup>log</sup> rapidly growing ~~the~~ amount of engagement with the museum.

Style Best wishes,
 Emily
