The School's Museum

I. Introduction.

gr Museum is a place of knowledge that serves as a tool in the process of education and an inspiration to those seeking one. Recently, the popularity of such institutions rapidly decreased. In this report I will try to highlight the cause of this problem and provide a solution to it. gr

II. Museums as a place of art and science.

gr Museums are known for 'housing' valuable art that serves as a great help to scientists studying a time period or a culture. Our school's museum is not different from a regular one, because it contains exhibits related to school's history such as artwork of students, school's uniform etc. gr

III. The Problem.

gr The contents of the museum are no longer able to serve as one of the main sources of information for teenagers. Young people view the museum as a limitation to their knowledge because of the internet, that provides incredible amounts of free information. To put it simply, nowadays museum is a waste of time. style

IV. Recommendations.

To solve this problem, I recommend relocating the museum's exhibits to the school's ⁽²⁾ hallways where students spend most of their free time, in order to broaden the outlet of the ^(K3) exhibits and increase the student's engagement. They will be interested in the renovations and may decide to take a look at the newly-placed exhibits. The exhibits could also be enhanced with color in order to catch attention of people.

① Conclusion

In conclusion, I would like to bring up the importance of the museum once again. This place contains many valuables and ~~it is~~ that simply should not be overlooked. I hope my recommendations will prove to be of use.
