Firstly, we visited museum and checked almost everything. In total, objects and stuff in a good state; there a lot of decorations, which create "ancient" atmosphere, several quite gripping exhibits and a large amount of information about them. In addition, museum has a collection of few paintings.

Although everything looks well students are rapidly forget information about exhibits and don't visit museum more than 3 times in a year. We also analyzed the situation and made some suggestions:

1. Decrease amount of text near objects and make web-version of full text, a limitation will be 2-3 sentences for ~~extra~~ ^{extra} info. It will give an opportunity to make ~~engagement~~ ^{engagement} of paintings.
2. Organize any contests, concerts or events, related to history or art, every month. It will help us to involve more and more people.
3. Give a cards with exhibits and with small info about them on a output.

In conclusion, we are hoping for your understanding, because we are sure that it will enhance the quality of students' knowledge and increase museum's efficiency.
