sp Museums are the essential part of the education. Many schools have museums, which contain the unic history of the Russia and school itself. sp Nowadays, the importance of school museums is rapidly increasing. lex lex Our school owns the museum too. There we can find various stuff that related to the time of USSR. Our students have a chance to see the albums of previous students, the information about the World War II, portraits of war heroes, the elements of usual life of ancient Russia. lex sp Unfortunately, not so many schoolchildren are attracted by the idea of watching the valuable exhibitions of our museum. I think the reason for this is the limitation of exces in there. lex We can visit the museum only on special occasions. Moreover, a lot of students just do not intrested in the history of their mother-land and the school especially. sp sp I am convined that we can involve students in visiting our museum by some methods. Firstly, history teachers can visit our the museum with children during the lesson about Soviet Russia. We have items, which related to this period. Engagement of students in learning history in such way will increase the interest to this museum. Also school administration should free the entrance to the museum. Than kids will get the opportunity to visit this place more often. PK 3 lex In conclusion, I would like to say that museums are needed things in school. It can awake student's love to history and they will know the regards of their school, what will make them proud of their study place. lex
