To: Mr. Fox

From: Alice Parker

Subject: the school museum

Date: 16th of February

Purpose:

Gr.

The report aims to provide an overall view of the attendance of ^{prep} the school museum and reasons why it is not so high. It will also include some recommendation for improving the situation.³⁴

Problems:

Sp

The museum of our school is a perfect opportunity to learn new facts and become more knowledgeable absolutely for free. However it is not being used by most of students.

P

According to the information collected during the survey, there are several reasons for that. Firstly, children complain about lack of new exhibitions. They are all old-fashioned and do not draw on teenagers. Secondly, there is no further information about ^{WW}exhibitions, which can captivate children's eyes. So they just rapidly look through the exhibition.

Recommendations:

Exp. Exp.

With all points in mind, it can be judged that some changes are essential. For instance, the guide should be employed. He will help children understand the information better and, at the same time, make the excursion more involving. The limitation of people should be introduced. Likewise, old ~~teaching~~ technique should be ~~outputted~~, and new ones be bought. As a new projector which provides the opportunity to watch educational films will, certainly,
