The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland is situated on the British Isles. The British Isles consist of two large islands, Great Britain and Ireland, and more than 5000 small islands.

The British Isles are separated from European continent by the North Sea and the English Channel. The western coast of Great Britain is washed by the Atlantic Ocean and the Irish Sea.

The population of the United Kingdom is more than 58 million people. The main nationalities are: English, Welsh, Scottish and Irish. The head of the country is the Queen Elizabeth II.

The United Kingdom consists of 4 parts: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. England is the central and the biggest part of island Great Britain. To the North is Scotland and to the west the third part of the UK, Wales, is situated. The fourth part is called Northern Ireland and is located on the second island.

Each part has a capital. London is the capital of Great Britain and London as well. London is the cultural center of the country and is situated on the banks of the Thames. Wales has Cardiff, the capital of Scotland is Edinburgh, and the main city of Northern Ireland is Belfast.

Great Britain is a country famous for its landmarks, places of interest and legendary people.

Big Ben is the most important landmark of Great Britain.

There are many places of interest in the UK. Such as London Eye, Stonehenge, Big Ben, Sherlock Holmes Museum in England. Scotland is famous for its mysterious and legendary the Loch Ness Lake, Edinburgh Castle and Fingal's Cave as well. If you want to enjoy the nature, you must visit the National park Snowdonia in Wales. And if you are a fan of legends, you have to see the Giant's Causeway in Northern Ireland.
